

CASE STUDY

Kelly Day, HR & Recruitment Co-Ordinator USP College

AT A GLANCE

PREVIOUS CHALLENGES

- Many colleges processes were stored and managed in different systems.
- Involving teachers with their own development

CURRENT BENEFITS

- CollegeiP centrally manages many processes, saving time and resources.
- CollegeiP allows teachers to view and be involved in their PD.

"The system is easy to use and the help available in particular suggests that the development of the software is obtainable"

IMPACT

Does CollegeiP save your college money? It saves time as lots of things are located centrally.

Does CollegeiP reduce teacher workload? CollegeiP allows staff to review observation, teaching & learning, and other teaching standards in one place.

Does CollegeiP provide your college with data? Reporting on performance, reporting on expectations, and multiple cross-departmental sharing and access

Does CollegeiP improve teacher well-being?

There is more transparency of developmental aspects of teaching & learning as previously this was not shared directly with the teacher, therefore, indirectly affecting teacher wellbeing.

How has CollegeiP improved your college's processes? All staff have live visibility of in-year objectives. Are able to record evidence in support of achievement of said objectives.
